Your comments are invaluable and we really appreciate your suggestions and feedback as part of the questionnaire. We were overwhelmed with positive feedback on the questionnaires and we would like to share some highlights with you:

“A big thank you to headteacher, teachers and all school staff - you are all brilliant. This school is a happy, supportive and safe environment for our children, filled with learning opportunities.”

“My child feels supported and valued, and it shows in their confidence and academic growth.”

“Children are allowed to just be themselves and praised for who they are.”

“My child is happy, safe and has a positive attitude towards school.”

“I feel the school brings out the best in my child.”

“Vernon is a fantastic school and has given my children an amazing education.”

“I am really glad we chose Vernon for our child – she has excelled throughout her time with the help of hardworking and caring teachers.”

‘The preparation for High School has been amazing.’

“The teachers are so enthusiastic and encouraging and always strive for each child to do their best...”

“The school feels very safe and caring and supportive and is a really positive environment to learn and make friends. I’m so grateful that we chose Vernon for our children, they couldn’t have had a happier primary school experience than they have.”

“From reception to year 6, my child has had the best start to his school career at Vernon. He has excelled academically, socially and emotionally; much of which has been due to the hard work, dedication and opportunities given to him by the Vernon team.”

Thank you again to everyone who responded to the questionnaire. Please keep letting us know how we can improve our school and solve any issues you or your child may have; we all strive for what is best for the children and working together, we can achieve it.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs J Carvell
Headteacher
