

Vernon Primary School

Anti-bullying Policy

This policy is designed to be used alongside and in addition to other relevant policies and documentation, such as the Behaviour Policy, Child Protection Policy and Procedures (Safeguarding), SEND Policy, Equality Policy and Objectives, Accessibility Policy and Plan, Confidentiality Policy, Online Safety Policy, Relationships and Sex Education Policy and Children's Mental Health and Wellbeing Policy.

At Vernon Primary School, staff, Parents/Carers and children work together to create a happy, caring, inclusive and welcoming learning environment. We promote an ethos of truth and honesty in a place in which everyone feels valued and shows respect for each other and their surroundings. As a team, we are committed to high expectations and continuous improvement. We adopt a child-centred approach to high quality teaching and learning, inspiring everyone to achieve their full potential.

Headteachers have a legal duty to outline procedures to prevent bullying among pupils and to bring the procedures to the attention of staff, governors, Parents/Carers and children.

We are committed to providing a caring, friendly and safe environment for all our pupils so they can learn in a secure atmosphere. Bullying, either verbal, physical or indirect will not be tolerated at our school. It is everyone's responsibility to aim to prevent occurrences of bullying and to deal with any incidents quickly and effectively.

Bullying can be brought to the attention of staff either by the victim(s), their friend(s), their parent(s)/carer(s) or other interested people.

Bullying is hurting a person deliberately, where it is difficult for those bullied to defend themselves. It is described as a deliberate act carried out to cause distress solely in order to give a feeling of power, status or other gratification to the person bullying. It can be a single incident that has a lasting effect upon the victim, or it may be a pattern of repeated behaviour that takes place over time.

When children are asked about bullying, they often describe unkind or hurtful behaviour rather than actual bullying. This kind of behaviour needs to be addressed and everyone concerned needs to know how to deal with it. It is imperative that we fully understand what is bullying before we identify all hurtful behaviour as bullying.

Bullying (including forms of child-on-child abuse) is:

- meant to hurt or intended to cause distress
- deliberate
- may be repeated over a period of time
- an imbalance of power

Bullying (including forms of child-on-child abuse) manifests itself in several ways:

- Physical (e.g. hitting, kicking, theft)
- Verbal (e.g. name calling)
- Indirect (spreading rumours, excluding someone)
- Emotional (being unfriendly, tormenting)
- Sexual (unwanted physical contact or abusive comments, sending of inappropriate images)
- 'Cyber-Bullying' or 'Virtual' bullying (the use of technology and/or social media to bully an individual)
- Bullying of children with Protected Characteristic: Pupils who may be targeted based on age, sex, gender reassignment, disability, religion or beliefs, race, sexual orientation. For example, homophobic bullying or a child being treated unfairly based on gender, such as girls being targeted with misogynistic language or behaviour. This type of bullying could take some or all of the above forms.

For more information of forms of child-on-child abuse, see school's Child protection Policy and Procedures (Safeguarding).

Signs of Bullying:

A pupil may display signs or behaviour that he or she is being bullied. Adults should be aware of these possible signs and should investigate if a child:

- is frightened of coming to or from school;
- changes their usual routines;
- is unwilling to go to school;
- is often absent or shows a pattern of absence;
- becomes withdrawn, anxious, or lacking in confidence;
- starts becoming nervous when asked to speak;
- attempts or threatens to run away;
- cries themselves to sleep at night or has nightmares;
- feels ill in the morning;
- changes their behaviour in school or their attitude to school work;
- comes home with clothes torn or books damaged;
- has possessions going 'missing';
- asks for money or starts stealing money;
- has unexplained cuts or bruises;
- becomes aggressive, disruptive, unreasonable;
- is bullying other children or siblings;
- stops eating;
- begins relying on adult support;
- is frightened to say what's wrong;
- gives improbable excuses for any of the above.

These signs and behaviours could indicate other problems, but bullying should be considered as a possibility and should be investigated. All staff must be aware of the signs of bullying (supported by the signs of bullying checklist) and act promptly against in accordance with school policy.

The school acknowledges the need to be proactive in addressing bullying and understands that a culture of openness and honesty is of paramount importance.

Strategies in place to specifically address bullying and its effects include:

- The school's up-to-date PSHE Curriculum (which follows the PSHE Association's thematic model) teaches distinct units on bullying and online behaviour.
- The Vernon Primary School Superheroes 'Power for Good' whole-school initiative - this includes classroom practice and lessons, assemblies, displays, posters and focused days;
- The school's 'Safeguarding and Wellbeing Committee' comprises a group of proactive Key Stage Two children, who design and implement a range of strategies (including and separate to these listed) which have a whole-school impact and address bullying using the power of pupil voice.
- School code of conduct;
- Creating an open culture where feelings are validated;
- Using Circle Time and PSHE lessons within and across the curriculum to explore children's feelings and raise awareness of different kinds of behaviour;
- Exploring different scenarios (through video, story, poetry, role play, discussion, drama);
- Encouraging empathy (what is he/she feeling/how would they feel);
- Encouraging children to see another's point of view;
- Class Rules
- Displays, including the Superheroes Power for Good display, designed and created by children in Art Club;
- Praise assemblies to develop children's confidence and self-esteem;
- Buddy systems;
- Certificates, praise and reward systems;

Implementation:

The following steps may be taken when dealing with any incidents of bullying (see also Appendix A for Anti-Bullying Flow Chart):

- If bullying is suspected or reported, the incident will be dealt with promptly by the member of staff who has been approached.
- A clear account of the incident will be recorded and discussed with the Headteacher, Deputy Headteacher, Assistant Headteacher or Pastoral Manager.
- The Headteacher, Deputy Headteacher, Assistant Headteacher or Pastoral Manager will interview all concerned and will record the incidence.
- Class teachers will be kept informed
- Sanctions will be used as appropriate and in consultation with all involved, including parents/carers and in line with this policy, as well as the behaviour policy.

Strategies for addressing bullying:

The following is a list of actions available to staff depending on the perceived seriousness of the situation. The emphasis is always on a caring, listening approach, as the children bullying others are often victims too and this could be the cause of the behaviour (see also Appendix A for Anti-Bullying Flow Chart):

- Discussions at length with the victim. This will require patience and understanding. Remember – listen, believe, act.
- Where long term bullying is identified bullying checklist will be completed by a person known to the child.
- Identify the child(ren) bullying the victim. Obtain witnesses if possible. Notify the Headteacher, Deputy Headteacher or Assistant Headteacher.
- Discussions with the child bullying the victim. Confront them with the details and ask them to tell the truth about the situation/incident. Make it clear that bullying is not acceptable at Vernon Primary School.
- If they own up, then follow the procedure outlined below alongside the Behaviour Policy
- If they are not open and honest, investigate further. If it is clear that they are not telling the truth, continue with the procedure. Children are usually more likely to be open and honest if presented with all the facts. Ask them to note down what they have done and how they will make the right choices in future.
- Separate discussions with parents/carers of all children involved.
- Sanctions for the child (according to and in line with Behaviour Policy) may include withdrawal from favoured activities, loss of playtimes, exclusion from school during lunchtimes, exclusion from school, depending on the perceived severity of the incident(s).
- Continue monitoring the situation by observing at playtimes/lunchtimes and having discussions with victim to ensure no repetition (ask the midday assistants to monitor the situation at lunchtimes).
- As the behaviour of the child improves, then favoured activities can be reinstated, and the child should be praised for good behaviour.
- Ongoing support should be provided for any pupils involved in or affected by the incident(s), such as the victim(s). This support can include praise, rewards, liaison with parents/carers, safe space, circle of friends activities, listening time, Personal Development lessons with a specific focus and buddy systems, 1-1 support or group interventions with Pastoral Manager.

Pupils who have been bullied will be supported by:

- Offering an immediate opportunity to discuss the experience with a member of staff of their choice;
- Reassuring the pupil that they have done the right thing by making a report and the School will be responding;
- Offering of continuous support in relation to their safety and emotional well-being;
- Ensuring safety;
- Working to restore self-esteem and confidence;
- Where appropriate, support will be offered and a wellbeing plan may be implemented.

Pupils who have bullied will be helped by:

- Discussing what happened;
- Discovering why they became involved;
- Exploring different perspective as appropriate ;
- Establishing all hurtful behaviour and the need to change;
- Informing parents/carers to support change in the pupil;
- Where appropriate, support will be offered and a wellbeing plan may be implemented.

Pupils who have acted as bystanders will be supported by:

- Exploring ways to help them aid the situation using sensible and safe strategies (identifying the correct choice of behaviour, not encouraging others to make the wrong choice of behaviour);
- Encouraging pupils to share information and concerns with trusted adults;
- Discussing ways to support individual pupils (bystanders) and the impact on their emotional wellbeing.
