Dear Parents/Carers,

I am writing touch base with you regarding the new teachers in Year 2. I would like to reassure you that we have already begun the transition process ready for the new term.

Mrs Langdon thoroughly enjoyed meeting the children yesterday and Miss Sefton has also been getting to know the class throughout the week. They will continue this process over the coming days, meeting with Miss Langthorp for a thorough handover and spending more time with the children in the class. This will ensure that the children feel comfortable with their new teachers before Christmas. In January, Miss Sefton will be teaching the class on a Monday and Tuesday each week; Mrs Langdon will be teaching Wednesday to Friday.

As soon as Mrs Hough notifies us of her return date, I will share this with you.

I can promise you that I will be doing everything I can to make sure that the class have a wonderful time in Year 2 and that I will also be prioritising this class when mapping their journey throughout the school next year and beyond.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs J Carvell
